Keep it before the people, that I told the people six months ago, that I intended to run through my campaign, with my motto to give each and every individual value received, for their valuable support, giving the Ladies a fine opportunity to exercise there fashionable rights, as well as the gentlemen, and since that time thousands have shown their good judgment by coming and demonstrating the truth of my assertion. I tell you Creech's is the place. And permit me to return my sincere thanks for your very liberal and valuable patronage for the last twenty-five years. I hope by strict attention to business and honest dealing, giving each and every one the worth of their money that I will continue to receive a liberal share of your patronage. The rest of my talking I shall do at my place of business which is Creech's corner Fayetteville Street Raleigh

ALL CASH PLAN OF THE

ÆTNA

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

W. H. CROW, General Agent for North Carolina and Virginia, South of the James.

|---|---|
| Accumulated Capital, over | $10,000,00 |
| Annual Income, | 6,000,000 |
| Surplus, above Liabilities, | 2,000,000 |

THE ÆTNA

Has $136 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

ALL POLICIES STRICTLY NON-FORFEITING.

CASH RATES!
CASH POLICIES!
CASH DIVIDENDS!

DIVIDENDS PAID ANNUALLY, COMMENCING AT THE END OF THE YEAR.

Dividends may be used to reduce the annual Premium or increase the Cash value of the Policy.

NON-FORFEITING CASH PLAN.

The Ætna issues Policies on the various forms of whole life and endowment insurance, with dividends on the contribution plan, which may be applied to the reduction of each annual premium after the first, or the full premium, may be paid each year and the dividens applied to reduce the number of annual premiums, together with the period fixed for the maturity of the insurance, so that endowments can be paid to the insured before the time originally specified, and life policies before death.

By this plan of applying the dividends to lessen the cost of the insurance on the original policy, instead of increasing the amount of insurance, and of course its total cost, and the policies will become self-sustaining much sooner than in other companies; and in case of inability to continue payments, give a larger paid-up-policy.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time lived thereon for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

The New York Insurance Monitor says of the ÆTNA:

"No Life Insurance Company ever achieved so complete a success as this popular institution.—Its popularity is altogether unprecedented in the annals of commercial enterprise in this country."

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

AT ATHERSTONE.

How many Stanleys are standing at Atherstone! At the battle of Bosworth Lord Stanley, commanding 7,000 men, posted himself at Atherstone, as convenient to the camp of Richard as to the camp of Henry. His purpose was to go over to the winning side. No man ever read that page in history without a feeling of scorn and contempt for Stanley. We have information of some nineteen men who are now standing at Atherstone, Stanley like, waiting to go to the winning side.

Many of the nineteen are lawyers, looking for places. The political character of Holden is so horrid and shocking to every sentiment of humanity, that the nineteen are unwilling to grasp even in friendly political relations the faithless hand of the Governor. Stand, gentlemen, a little longer, for you are sure to regret it if you go over to Holden's camp. The offices are all filled at present. There is no place for you unless the Governor will put you on his detective staff. The office and service of a detective are such, that you will not be pleased with them.

Holden, Rodman, Pilgrim Ashley, Littlefield and the Standard, backed by eighty thousand negroes, and the Committee who purchased 8,000 acres of land for the Penitentiary, can't control the destinies of North Carolina.

Holden was elected Governor as Maximilian was elected Emperor. If Gen. Canby had issued the order to elect him Emperor he would have met with the same success. As Provisional Governor he called your best citizens liars and threatened to seize their property and "apply it to State purposes and charitable uses."

Such a threat to seize the property of a citizen has not been made by crowned heads and tyrants in Europe these hundred years past. Yet it is done with impunity in North Carolina. No crowned head of Europe can, to day, call his truthful citizens liars and threaten to seize their property as Holden did, without danger of losing his crown.

It is the slave that makes the tyrant, and if the people had not bowed their neck to Holden and the sword, Holden would never have threatened the press; Holden would never have appointed magistrates, many of whom had been in jail alm st as often as they had been in the Court House. He would never have threatened to seize the property of George W. Mordecai and Dr. Hawkins, if they did not behave themselves.

He became insolent and daring because he saw the people were submissive under the strong hand of defeat. He belongs to that class who presume to domineer and tyrannize over the helpless and depressed. When dealing with men they are cowards and sneaks.

EXTRAORDINARY LAW!—"BLOATED CAPITALISTS" LOOK SHARP!!

The attention of our readers is called to the following law, which seems to have escaped public attention. It is taken from section 12, paragraph 5, of "an act to provide for the collection of taxes," &c. Ratified March 13, 1869.

After providing for listing credits, &c. the paragraph referred to reads as follows:

"If any credit be regarded as not entirely solvent, it shall be given in at its estimated value. Provided, That no Judge of the Superior Court, or Justice of the Peace, shall give judgment on any credit, for more than it was valued at when given in; that no officer shall collect, on executions, or otherwise, more than aforesaid value."

Holders of notes on their fellow citizens must remember, in listing their taxables and valuing such rates, that their own estimate of value may be brought against them, when seeking to collect their securities.

We presume the lawyers may try to bring the Constitution of the United States to oppose and vanquish this most novel law, but certainly there seems to be fun ahead.

CUTTING THE EYE TEETH.

Some of the colored people are beginning to understand what a cats paw they have been in Radical hands. The more intelligent now perceive that they and their race were extremely useful in procuring office for the carpet-bag gentry and the weak-kneed whites of the South, but were not expected "to partake." You are a very clever fellow, says the carpet-bagger, very clever indeed; help me to office, and I will help you to the ballot-box. But when the "friend and brother" asks in turn for a favor, and says: "May I not, if qualified, hold office too?"—"Narry time, my good sir. The offices are for us—your liberators."

But Pompey now smiles at this game. He begins to see through it all, and he means to hold office, provided he can get office. Certain negroes in Alexandria, Virginia, have met and resolved as follows, to which we call the attention of the colored voters of North Carolina. Like your Virginia brethren, resolve, that you will have office as well as your carpet-bag deceiver, or shallawag manipulator. But read their preamble and resolution:

"Whereas, we hold the balance of power between the great political parties in this State, it is our duty to ourselves and posterity to take a stand in maintaining our political rights:

'We, the undersigned, do pledge ourselves not to co-operate or vote with any party of white men, be they called Republicans or Democrats, unless we shall have assurance from the party that in the distribution of official positions the claims of the colored people be regarded equal to that or to those of our white brethren, due regard being had at all times to fitness and qualification.

CARPET-BAGGERS.

If the author of "Hudibras" were alive, he would find in the Carpet Baggers a fit theme for his satire. They ought to be forever embalmed, not in the kind recollections of a grateful and appreciative people, but in the wit and ridicule of some living Cervantes or Butler.

We can but think that the vices, the crimes, the follies, the unblushing effrontery, the delightfully refreshing impudence and trickery of the genuine North Carolina Carpet-Bagger would furnish as good a subject for the graphic pencil of a Hogarth, or the pittiless ridicule and raillery of a Butler, as could be found in "merry England" at any period of her history. Why, in some of our Yankee Generals, who have foisted themselves conspicuously upon the public, we have characters every way as vulnerable to the shafts of criticism and poetic handling as were Sir Hugh de Bras, or any other of the valorous Knights of King Arthur's fabulous Round Table. All a satirist born would have to do that he might write a most laughable jeu d' esprit—a second Euripidean "Cyclops," would be to hold up in faithful colors the venality and vice, the opinion, the sentiment, and the manners, of those "birds of prey" who have grown plethoric from the spoils they have gathered from an honest and reduced people. Lord Byron said that

"Cervantes laughed Spain's chivalry away."

Oh, for some Cervantes to laugh away our Carpet-Baggers—the chivalry of Nantucket and Cape Cod.

But here they are, and for the present at least we must make the best of a very bad job, and if we can do no more, we must watch them with an eagle eye and if possible restrain them in the gratification of their insatiable cupidity and corruption.—But

'What rein can hold licentious wickedness,
When down the hill he holds his fierce career?'

But we draw consolation from one consideration—the reign of the carpet-bagger is not to continue forever. We believe we shall be relieved of his presence after his present term of office has expired. The people are beginning to get sick of them all; the negroes are finding them out; the callawags are becoming jealous of their power; the Ajax of Leaguedom has struck her a mighty blow, as Col. Sinclair proclaimed, and in a year or two, a carpet-bagger will have become a curiosity from his rarity as he is now a curiosity because of his unvarnished impudence and rapacious proclivities. Speed the day when such a deliverance shall come!

But we only took pencil in hand to write a few words of introduction to the following paragraph which occurs in the Chicago Tribune. Its editor, Joseph Medill, is in Louisiana, and he thus writes concerning the Carpet-Baggers in that State. The reader will see how very like the creatures are wherever found. If we had published this extract as a part of a letter written from Raleigh whilst the hands were in session, everybody would have said at once a the description was read—"There now, tha refers to our Carpet-Baggers!" But to the passage from Mr. Medell's letter, and mind you, he is a Radical, but of the better sort we take him. He says:

"In regard to negro office holding, the ex rebels are more sensitive than about negro voting; still, they declare that they prefer negro creoles to hold office rather than carpet-baggers. They entertain an irrevocable animosity toward carpet-bag office-seekers, and I really cannot blame them, for it is a deplorable fact that a very large majority of these gentry are scamps and thieves—rotten driftwood, who have been floated down the Mississippi, and quatted on the offices. They bring disgrace on the party to which they profess to belong. They possess as keen a scent and as ravenous an appetite for plunder as the vultures who fill the air have for putrid carcasses. The difference between these birds of prey is that the former feast on the substance of living men, while the latter content themselves with the carcasses of dead animals. It would be safe to enter the Louisiana carpet-baggers for pilfering, peculating and scoundrelism, in competition with any of the tribe in any other part of the South."

ANOTHER APPOINTEE.

Mr. H. S. Sanford, nominated by General Grant, as Minister to Spain, does not meet with much favor at the hands of some of the Radicals. The New York Evening Post, Sun, and Herald condemn the appointee as wholly unfit for the place. So the President goes blundering on, picking up here and there obscure and incompetent men for places of high responsibility and honor.—When the President's own friends find fault you may well conclude that the case is deplorably bad.

STILL ANOTHER.

One Silas A Hudson has been appointed Minister to Guatemala. We know nothing of him save the following which is from a Radical paper—the New York Sun. It says:

"Hudson became a war Democrat. He is an ignorant, unscrupulous fellow, without a single qualification for the office. It is his brother, Peter A. Hudson, who was on General Grant's staff. He is a loose, gambling loafer, and has for a year been a resident of California. He is to be Marshal of the United States for that State."

Comment is superfluous. Motley is bad, Sanford is worse, and Silas is worst. Go it Grant, who is the next incapable upon whom you propose to cast one of your best smiles?

TWO MILLIONS FOR A RAILROAD FRANCHISE.

Much indignation continues to be expressed in the New York journals at the evident determination of the State Legislature to pass the so-called Broadway railroad bill giving to favorites, as a gratuity, that valuable franchise. Though opposed to the project of such a road in that crowded thoroughfare as injurious, Mr. A. T. Stewart offers to give two million dollars for the franchise, and pay down the money within thirty days after the passage of the bill, or he will pay any higher sum which the franchise may command at public auction. Notwithstanding this offer, it is alleged that the original gratuity bill for the ring will pass, the votes having been already secured, though the price for them may now have to be a little higher. And so we go, all over the country, from Congress downwards.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND GLEANINGS.

We continue our efforts under this head. We are encouraged to do so, because we have reason to know, that many of our readers, living in Raleigh, and at a distance, are pleased with them. What Raleigh journalism has long needed is something else than party politics. An incorporation of the literary element into our papers would make them more acceptable at least to one class of readers, and that class not the least influential in shaping public opinion,—we mean those who prefer, now and then, other matter than discussions of political questions of a purely State character. If you examine a London or New York paper, of the better kind, you will find discussions of scientific, literary and other subjects, that are neither partisan, nor of a local interest. We would like to contribute something in this direction, as far as opportunity and ability will permit. Our ideal of a newspaper requires that there should be variety at least. We are endeavoring to make the Sentinel a better newspaper, and we are glad to know, that many of our friends think that we are succeeding in our endeavors. We desire, furthermore, to contribute towards the gratification of those whose curiosity is not prurient, and whose taste is not morbid.

And now reader, we will collate for you some few things that appeared to us at the time we met with them as being good.—Perhaps you will agree with us.

1. Every man of respectable reading knows all about Professor Wilson. He was a singularly genial and lovable man. One of the many descriptions of him is the following, from the "Biographical Sketches" of Miss Martineau, whose portraiture is more direct, but not so elaborate and satisfactory as that by Thomas De Quincey. But here is her sketch of the versatile and vigorous Scotsman:

"Such a presence is rarely seen; and more than one person has said that he reminded them of the first man, Adam; so tall was that large frame of vitality, force, and sentience. His tread seemed almost to shake the streets, his eye almost saw through stone walls; and as for his voice, there was no heart that could stand before it..... No less striking was it to see him in a mode of repose, as when he steered the odd packet boat that used to pass between Bowness and Ambleside. Sitting motionless, with his hand upon the rudder, in the presence of journeymen and market women, with his eye apparently looking beyond everything into nothing, and his mouth closed under his beard, as if he meant never to speak again, he was quite as impressive and immortal an image as he could have been to the students of his class or the comrades of his jovial hours."

2. Lord Brougham was almost equally well known, but far below old "Kit" in genius. Miss Martineau has given, also a sketch of him that will not be distasteful to any one but a regular dolt who ought never to read a book or newspaper, for, as are we, he would never understand the one or the other:

"Lord Brougham was at his chateau at Cannes when the first introduction of the daguerreotype process took place there; and an accomplished neighbor proposed to take a view of the chateau with a group of guests in the balcony. The artist explained the necessity of perfect immobility. He only asked that his Lordship and friends would keep perfectly still for 'five seconds,' and his Lordship vehemently promised that he would not stir. He moved about too soon, however; and the consequence was a blur where Lord Brougham should be; and so stands the daguerreotype view to this hour. There is something mournfully typical in this. In the picture of our century, as taken from the life by History this very man should have been a central figure."

3. Here is an anecdote about the most charming writer of fiction that ever employed the English language as the vehicle of his thoughts. A writer who still holds the place he has occupied in the world's heart for fifty years, and whose works are read as generally now, as at any former period. This fact is remarkable, for since Scott's day, a perfect host of novelists have come forth, many of whom have obtained large audiences, and have been able to avail themselves of contemporary excitement, thought and prejudices to give popularity to their creations. But in spite of Bulwer, and Dickens, and Thackeray, and Charlotte Bronte, and Miss Mitford and "George Elliott," Sir Walter is still supreme. But here is the anecdote. It is not new, but good:

"Sir Walter Scott was, in one of his walks, leaning on the arm of his satirical attendant, Tom Purdie. Tomsaid: "Them are fine novels of yours, Sir Walter; they are just invaluable to me." "I am glad to hear it, Tom." "Yes, sir; for when I have been out all day hard at work, and come home very tired, and take up one o' your novels, I'm asleep directly."

One of the acutest epigrams in our language originated is the shabby treatment which poor, unfortunate Samuel Butler, the author of the immortal "Hudibras," received from his ungrateful countrymen. This great wit in his latter days lived in great poverty and obscurity in one of the filthiest and most miserable parts of London. After his death, he was buried by a friend who kindly supplied what Butler's extreme poverty could not procure—a grave. But after he was dead, his genius was greatly praised and a monument was erected to his memory, upon which was engraven an inscription highly eulogistic of his uncommon parts. It was this tardy and, to him, useless recognition, that brought out the following epigram, one of the best yet written:

'Whilst Butler, needy wretch, was yet alive
No generous patron would a dinner give;
See him, when starved to death, and turned to dust,
Presented with a monumental bust.
The poet's fate is here in emblem shown;
He asked for bread, and received a stone."

Don Piatt writes: "The vilest Copperhead I ever encountered is an honest man by the side of Ben. Butler. The roughest rough of the Democrats is a gentleman by the side of Chandler. And the stupidest ass that howls 'nigger' at the cross-roads is a statesman by the side of Kelley.

Miss Evans has a new novel, which contains a picturesque summary of all the cyclopædias extant, and for which she has been offered $15,000.

For the Sentinel.

FROM JONES COUNTY.

MR EDITOR:—Please allow a quiet, peaceable and law-abiding citizen of Jones county (one well acquainted in the county) a small space in your paper, to correct the many exaggerated charges and unfounded stories circulated and published in the Radical papers of the State generally, concerning affairs in Jones county.

It seems our poor "down trodden" county is a special object of hatred by the Radicals and their presses. I notice in the Standard of March 31st, a piece over the signature of "Trent," headed matters in Jones. Again of April 7th, there are no less than three pieces published relative to affairs in this "down trodden" county.—Down trodden and oppressed, indeed they are, such, perhaps, as no other community or people in the U. S., but our whole cry is "let us have peace," and if a few turbulent spirits from other counties commit acts of lawlessness, I protest in the name of the good and peaceable citizens of the county from being characterized and branded as a band of horse thieves, robbers, &c., or their sympathizers.

I now propose to give you a true and short narrative of affairs as have so far transpired in this oppressed and down trodden county. I must necessarily be short, as it would take a volume to jot down a full history in detail as it should be, to be handed down "to de scendives of gravity."

According to the statements of the Radicals, they are the down trodden and oppressed; yea, persecuted portion of the community, but let stubborn facts answer. It was no oppression when in May 1867, three innocent, respectable, inoffensive young men were dragged from their houses and carried to Newbern, some of whom were thrust in jail and I would have been, but for one of the parties having influential friends and relatives to bail him. These young men were arrested on a charge of robbing a negro of a horse, and after a patient and tedious trial for four or five days, were acquitted by a Radical Judge of U. S. Commission Court, and honorably discharged, not the first scintilla of evidie co appearing against them, except the negro whose horse was stolen, and the opinion was generally entertained that he perjured himself. So satisfied was the prosecuting officer of this, that he remarked at the close of the trial, that the prosecutor was "mistaken no doubt, honestly mistaken."

They were not oppressed and down trodden when the Sheriff of the County, elected by the legal voters thereof, and fifteen or sixteen Magistrates, some of long standing and very acceptable to the people, were removed, and are ignorant to this day of the cause of their removal.

They were not oppressed and down trodden when a highly respectable citizen, by the name of Ballard, was waylaid and murdered near his home in no known cause,—A man by the name of Andrews shot about the same time; another by the name of Wood shot at also. Add to this the murder of the whole R. R. Foscue family, no age, sex nor condition, being spared, the husband and wife, as well as helpless babes shared the same fate. Several attempts to murder a man by the name of Elliott in the same vicinity, and on the third or fourth attempt succeeded.

Also, a man by the name of Evans, on his way home from Newbern, 16 miles from town, way laid and shot very badly. Which some men Evans, was afterwards arrested on a warrant issued by a negro magistrate, the only one in the county, and who can neither read nor write, and committed to Jail, by this ignorant unlettered magistrate, without allowing him time to bail, being quite sick at the time. They were not oppressed, when one of her best, most useful and most exemplary citizens, Col. J. H. Nethercutt, was shot down in cold blood, at his own fireside, surrounded by his family.

But two colored men of good character, so far as the writer knows, have also been murdered, within the past few years, viz: David Wilder and Caio Bacon. These two murders were deplored and condemned by all citizens, both white and colored, and no clue as to their murderers, or the reasons for it, have ever been developed, and the object may have been other than robbery, as no horse or mule, or anything else, was taken, so far as the writer ever heard.

Now to recent events in this "down trodden county" First, "Trent," in the Standard of the 31st of March, says: "It is well known that there has been a band of horse thieves, murderers and robbers in Duplin, Jones, Lenoir, and Onslow counties, operating for some years past." If there is any such band existing in this county, it is unknown to any but "Trent" and his confederates. If such a band exist here, it has no friends nor sympathizers with peaceable, orderly and law abiding citizens. As to other counties named they can answer for themselves. Is it not strange that a vigilant Grand Jury, composed in part of 7 or 8 negroes from all sections of Jones county, at the last term of the Superior Court, should, after 4 or 5 days session, be unable to ferret out one single instance of this horse thief band. Don't Trent know, don't every one know that were there such a band in this county, some of these negro Jurymen would have had them indicted, they being the down trodden class.

Again: "Two of the down trodden respectables were arrested lately, on a charge of highway robbery, and presumptive evidence of murder against one of them, not from colored testimony, says "Trent," but from respectable white men as there are in the county." Only one man was arrested, no charge against him of murder, but for some other offence, and he dragged from his home in Lenoir County, by order signed by no one, and directed to Sheriff of Jones county, (see proceedings in Journal of Commerce, inclosed by A. Munroe, of March 31st, which please publish.)

Again "Trent" says referring to the trial of Joel R. Hines, at Trenton, "some of the parties after rescuing a criminal, committed highway robbery on their way home, &c." I assert that no rescue was made of by one in custody of the law, none attempted, nor even threatened. As to committing highway robbery on their way home, "Trent" has charged this same crowd with the crime without any evidence whatever. Trent is the only one that I can find that can tell who stole the mule.

Swift in the heels of these transactions, arms and ammunition are sent to Newbern by what authority we know not, silently and secretly in a late hour of the night from the depot or express office and brought to Jones we suppose to defend us from the attacks of citizens of Lenoir, the royal negro militia ordered to rendezvous about 3 miles from Trenton leaving their own and employers work as they say, under compulsory orders to drill for the new war in embryo; and on the evening of the 2nd of April, twenty five or more of the sable recruits marched into the village armed with muskets and other implements of war, stretched their lines in one of the principal streets of the village, and took formal possession of the village. I am certain they felt something like a certain commander did when he marched up the hill with thirty thousand men and then marched them back again.

So pleased are these new recruits, that with their guns and bayonets, some of them are walking about the streets and attending their church, on the Sabbath, with the bayonets at their side. Mr. Editor, will you please to inform us whether the order of Gen. Schofield, Secretary of War, forbidding armed bodies from drilling or organizing has been repealed or not. Also inform us whether there is any law in existence to compel negroes, exclusively, to drill and do military duty, as employers cannot afford to hire hands to farm or do other work unless it is authorize by law. But, let us have peace.

In the Standard, of April 7th, there are two articles relating to the same subject, first, that a man named Sykes was liberated from the jail, in Jones county, which states that Sykes was liberated by an armed mob of thirty or forty white persons from Lenoir county, the second is headed another mob in Jones, Sykes taken from jail by men not living five miles from Trenton. Both of these articles are credited to the Newbren Times, and both purport to be from the same author, let them reconcile it. The true history of the affair is as follows:

Sykes made some expressions relative to the trial of Hines, which was heard by one of the negro melish, who took umbrage at it and made some insulting reply. Whereupon, Sykes, being somewhat in liquor, said he would not take his impudence, took his gun, but did not use it or attempt to use it. The negro applied for a warrant, arrested Sykes, he being a stranger and no one to bail him, he was put in prison, the second night after he was liberated, but by whom is still unknown. The jailor says he only saw five persons. The prisoners, in jail, swore that the jailor turned Sykes out himself, but that, however, is not credited.

But now Mr. Editor, prepare yourself for something startling! Waft, waft ye winds the story! Let Ætna, Hecla and Vesuvius reserve their pent up lava to pour on the devoted heads of the oppressors of the down trodden, over the signature of Trent in the Standard of the 7th of April. There is an article headed "A cry from Jones County," against the wicked miscreants. Hemp is invoked to suppress mule stealing and avenge the wrongs of one Jacob Lowd, who had, Trent says, two mules stolen from him, cut the throats of oxen, left him helpless, and this canard out Herod's Herod. No mules were stolen, no oxen's throats cut and Jacob has not been harmed.

I have seen both white and colored from his immediate neighborhood since this is said to have happened, who have conversed with him and heard not a word about it, and the article excites as it deserves a smile of scorn and derision, that any one should attempt to gull the public and slander the county. This report of cutting oxen's throats was first started in Lenoir County, and was located at or near one Mr. Kilpatrick's, some 25 or 30 miles distant. Whether true or not I do not know, but the latitude did not suit, so it was carried to Jones, increasing in enormity as it travelled on.

Let an impartial public decide who is the oppressed and the down trodden. We have forborne to write a line heretofore in defence of our county, which is as peaceable and law-abiding as any community in the State. But when the character of the whole county is slandered by such writers, forbearance ceases to be a virtue.

CANDOR.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this useful but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have, and can show, thousands upon thousands of certificates of remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and why should we publish them? Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body; restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change these complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. There are numerous cases where a purgative is required, which we cannot enumerate here, but they suggest themselves to everybody, and where the virtues of this Pill are known, the public no longer doubt what to employ.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled "Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that it is unnecessary to publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

ICE.—The warm weather is upon us, and Fraps & Co. are prepared to supply all calls upon them for the cleanest Boston Ice, at rates lower than heretofore.

PROF. N. MANASSE can suit all eyes, on a mere inspection of the eye, with the finest Brazilian Pebble Spectacles. Those in our City who are in want would do well by calling on him, as his stay will only be until Thursday morning. He can be seen at the Exchange Hotel.

THIEVING.—Rogues broke into the dairy of Mr. Rosenthal, last night and robbed him of one barrel of flour, all his meat, and sugar and coffee. The rogues returned but the alarm was given, and they fled.—Where were the fifteen policemen?

MORE ROGUERY.—We regret to here that some thieves entered the residence of Prof. W. C Kerr, State Geologist, on Saturday night and stole $300 worth of clothing from him and his wife. The room they entered is adjoining Prof. Kerr's chamber.—What has become of the policemen? In former years, Chief of Police, Parker, with only six policemen prevented such constant thieving?

ROGUERY AGAIN.—Who stole Mr. Crow's saddle and bridle on Friday night? Can the police tell?

COL. BINGHAM'S SCHOOL.—We had the pleasure of meeting this gentleman who was here last week attending the session of the Orange Presbytery. Whilst his school, owing to the great poverty of our people, is not as large as it has been, he has still, as we are pleased to learn, a goodly number who are preparing for College and future usefulness, under his excellent tuition.

WILLIAM HOWARD was arrested in this City to-day by Capt. Ballard, and lodged in Jail. Howard was charged with stealing a horse from Mr. John Bailey, of Davie County.

OUR enterprising townsman, Jno. G Williams, Esq., President of the State National Bank, will soon have built a magnificent structure on the vacant lot between T. R Fentress' and Tuckers. When completed it will be the handsomest edifice in our City, next to the Capitol. Success to all such enterprises, say we!

WE LEARN that a white man named Jackson was killed on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, on Saturday last. He was an employee of the Road, and was acting in the capacity of brakesman, on a freight train, and, as the train passed through a covered bridge, his head struck the bridge, and he was killed instantly.—His remains were brought to this city on yesterday, where he formerly resided. He leaves a wife and children.

SEND US NEWS.—We request the friends of the Sentinel throughout the State to send us any news items they may be able to gather in their respective localities. We want short, pithy statements, giving the main facts, and not long-winded letters.—Please oblige us. We are anxious to make the Sentinel a first-rate news medium. Be certain to sign your names, or otherwise we will have to reject your articles.

BINGHAM'S SERIES OF GRAMMARS.—It is a truly gratifying circumstance to know that any of our people are succeeding in legitimate and praise-worthy business.—We really are glad to learn that the Grammar's of Col. Wm. Bingham are meeting with large sales. The demand for them is great, and so popular are they with educators generally, they are not only being introduced into schools and Colleges, but the publishers the Messrs. Butler of Philadelphia, are urgent in their requests that the author should prepare at once other classical works for publication. Col. Bingham is a native North Carolinian, and it affords us singular satisfaction to make this record of appreciation and success in "book-craft."

OUR FRIENDS AT WORK.—Some of our friends have gone to work for the Sentinel. That is as it should be. We will be relieved of all loss after a while incurred in supplying a large list of subscribers gratis.—Our old subscribers whose time has expired during the last five months have generally renewed, and hundreds of new names have been added to our mail books. All we specially need is for our friends to exert themselves even a little in our behalf. We want to ramify the whole State, and it can be done by an effort on the part of those who endorse our course. You may rest confident that the Sentinel will be continued. We believe the people will continue to rally around the paper that guards with a sleepless vigilance their best interests.

The Bible Society of Virginia met in Richmond on Tuesday evening, the 6th inst. Rev. Dr. Woodbridge presided; addresses were delivered by Judge Sheffey and Rev. Dr. Plummer. Rev. Dr. Woodbridge was re-elected President, with several Vice Presidents. On motion of Bishop Doggett, the address of Judge Sheffey and Dr. Plumer are to be published.

WHAT THE PEOPLE SAY.

We could fill columns in the course of a few weeks with extracts from the letters of the white men of North Carolina, approving our course, and encouraging us to continue to expose the corrupt and unscrupulous party now in power. We have not done so because of the univocal sentiment among all true sons of North Carolina, whether native or adopted. We depart from our rule to-day to publish the following extract from the letter of a gallant and cultivated gentleman, a Colonel in the late war, and a citizen who is respected and esteemed by all who know him. He apologizes for not having canvassed for an increase of our circulation before this, because of long absence from home. He then adds: "This (canvassing) I shall certainly undertake and try to accomplish. The times call for a bold, live paper at the seat of government, and your's meets the demand. Continue, my friend, as you have begun, and you will build one up of which the State may be proud. * * * Use the lash unsparingly and expose the petty villanies of the base born curs who now 'rule the roast,' and seem bent on the ruin, disgrace, and degradation of the old mother."

STATE NEWS.

SUDDEN DEATH.—We regret to announce the sudden and untimely death of Mr. Miles Padgett, of Polk County, N. C., He left this village last evening, in apparent good health and was found soon afterwards, about one mile from this place, on the road leading to Shelby, dead. Doctor Craton and Twitty were promptly on the spot, and every available means used, to restore him to life, but without success. His sudden death was owing, most probably, to a disease of the heart, under which he has been laboring for some time.—Rutherford Star.

RAILROAD IRON.—The ship Alexandria and a bark, are discharging railroad iron at Messrs. R. J. & W. Neely's wharf, destined for a railroad in North Carolina. The iron is being placed in bond, and the Revenue officials are at present receiving it.—Norfolk Journal.

CAPE FEAR AGRICULTURAL ASSOCIATION.—We publish this morning the act of the Legislature incorporating the Cape Fear Agricultural Association. The Executive Committee are very busy holding frequent meetings and urging forward measures and work in order to hold a Fair next Fall. The grounds are being cleared, and soon the labor of cleaning up and draining will be commenced.—Wil. Journal.

The action of the Stockholders of the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad Company in accepting the acts of the Legislature as amendments to their charter, will have an important bearing upon that work. We trust that the money received from the State (for whatever may be the true intent of the acts, we are satisfied that the States' subscription will be four million of dollars of bonds) will be sufficient to complete the road to Rutherfordton, for the universal anxiety to finish this great line of railroad at an early day was the controlling influence with many, which induced their support of the amendment.—Wil. Journal.

JUDGE TOURGEE AS AN EDUCATOR.—We understand that the Judge formed such a partiality for a "yaller gal', in Yanceyville that he prevailed on her mother to let him take her home with him and 'educate' her. He said if she remained at home the probability was she would marry a nigger, whereas he would take her and, educating her, "marry her off to the best advantage." This is generous in the Judge—very generous! Is Tourgee a married man?—Milton Chronicle.

CHURCH BURNED.—We regret to learn that the Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church, in the Southern part of this County was burned on Thursday night the 8th inst. It is supposed to have been the act of an incendiary, as there was no fire in the woods and no chance for it to have been done by accident.—Rutherford Star.

GRACE ON HORSEBACK.—We have always thought that if we excel in anything, it is the graceful manner in which we ride a horse. We are, therefore, surprised to find Joe Turner publishing it to the world in his paper that "Rarey wouldn't consider us a graceful rider." Now, by thunder, we can beat Rarey—and if you don't believe it trot him out. We were never thrown by a horse over sixteen dozen times, and nine cases out of ten, the horse fell first. Why, some years ago, we rode a one eyed horse backwards nearly all the way from this place to Hillsboro—that is, the horse went neither end foremost—and he came back here with no eye at all. But the Sentinel had "cut" us awfully. If fried Turner has not noticed the fine horse we rode, we might have thought those Holdenite Ku kluxes down there about Wake Courthouse had "skeered" him so badly that he couldn't see straight.—Milton Chronicle.

NEW HANOVER MEDICAL SOCIETY.—The regular monthly meeting of the Medical Society of New Hanover will be held in this city on Wednesday evening next, the 21st instant. Essays will be delivered by Drs. Thos. F. Wood and Chas. S. Kerr.—Important discussions upon several interesting medical subjects are also expected.—Wil. Journal.

Wilmington has velocipedes.

Bentley, the Forger, is on trial in Wilmington. Hon. S. J. Person, prosecuting, Col. T. D. Meares, for the prisoner.

The Fayetteville Fire Company has invited the Steam Fire Engine Company of Wilmington to pay them a visit.

Oliver Dockery, M. C., is to have a public reception in Wilmington. What for?

LUNATIC ASTRAY.—A correspondent of the Wilmington Journal writes that paper as follows: "McConville, who claims to be the wife of James McConville, daughter of James McCowen, mother of Eli and Preston McConville, and a captive of the Yankees sometime during the war, came in Stump Sound District, Onslow county, N C., about the year 1865.

She expresses a desire to return home, but is unable to find the way herself, or to tell the county, State or town in which she lived during her sanity.

For further information of the above named lunatic, address Elijah Williams, Wilmington, N. C., care Huggins & Co.

Southern editors will please copy."

BOLD ROBBERY.—On Saturday night last, the store of Mr. A. W. Jamison, merchant of this place, was entered with a false key, and his iron safe, which contained a considerable sum of money and valuable papers, belonging to W. P. Caldwell, Esq., District Attorney, removed to a vacant lot in the Northern part of the town, and there broken open with a sledge-hammer, which was obtained, without leave, from Mr. Woodward's blacksmith shop, and with the demolished safe found next morning.—No goods were missing. The safe would take two stout men to carry it. The door was found locked next morning.

Mr. Caldwell's loss in money has been learned to be $400.—Cabarrus Standard.

PERSONAL.

Breckinridge's friends talk of purchasing him a residence in Lexington.

Rev. Mr. Ross, is an Episcopal clergyman of Indiana, who has been tried before an ecclesiastical court, and sentenced to be admonished by the Bishop, for having gone to see the "Black Crook."

It has been decided by the Princess Metternich, leader of fashions at Paris, that dresses shall be still lower in the neck and still longer in the train.

Hepworth Dixon writes a letter to the London papers to explain away the impression created by his books, that he had charged a general looseness of thinking, upon the subject of the relation of the sexes, upon the people of the United States.

A translation of the Aeneid, which Bismarck made twenty-six years ago, is only now to be published, probably on the principle of Lord Derby, that a writer's success in politics will float his demerits in literature.

The New York Post says Prince Louis of Bourbon, recently married there, is the direct heir to the Brazilian throne, in case the present Emperor dies without heirs.

Miss Dorothy L. Dix is about visiting California and Oregon to labor for the better care of the insane in those States.

Major General Sickles is retired from the army on the full pay of his rank. He has declined the mission to Mexico and the command of the Military District of Louisiana.

WHIM WHAMS.

Liberia has reason to be disgusted with Grant. Accustomed, himself, to smoke nothing worse than the most peerless principes or the most majestic meerschaums, he puts off the African colony with a colored Clay.

The Nahab of Bengal has just been dining with the English Ambassador in Paris—that is to say, his Highness assisted at a dinner; for, as none of the dishes were cooked by his own servants, neither he nor any of his suite dared to touch the viands. It will be remembered that one of the causes of the revolt in India, some years ago, was the suspicion among the native troops that animal grease had been used in the preparation of the cartridges served out to them. Perhaps the Nahab considers John Bull a "greaser," and feared the forbidden fat in the food placed before him.

Two darkies of Augusta, Ga., went out to fight a duel the other day, but when they were shaking with pistols in their hands, a shrewd old negro, after examining the challenge and acceptance, called a halt, remarking, "Dem dar papers ain't fixed up 'cording to de code, and dis foolishness is 'tout to git some nigger in jail;" whereupon the belligerents ejaculated each to his second, "Tank de Lord!" and went home.

FROM THE DEAD LETTER OFFICE.—The other day an Irish woman call at the Post Office in this city for a letter for herself.—"An' is there anything here for me?"—"What name?" "Bridget McCarty." "Yes, there's a letter here for you from the Dead Letter Office." The poor woman's face fell, and she burst into tears,—"An' sure an' I thought some of them mought ben dead that I didn't hear from them before." The clerk soothed her with a few legal remarks, explaining the nature of the Dead Letter Office, the woman wiped away her tears and went away with one of her old letters, happy in the thought that the "folks at home wan't dead.—[Lewiston (Me.) Journal, April 8.

"Do you ever take anything?" asked Sharp of Sozzles. "Never, sir, except I'm unwilling, and then my weakness is cognac. Just now I'm troubled with hollowness, and I don't care if I do."

Sheridan Knowles was one day walking with a friend—a well known London actor—in the Strand. Knowles suddenly detatches himself from his friend's arm, and pours forth a volume of hearty salutations on a gentleman passing by, whom he button holes on the spot. The gentleman instead of reciprocating, looks somewhat stiff and aggrieved. "No doubt you are glad to see me, Mr. Knowles," says he; "but I hardly thing you have treated me with very great courtesy. When I met you last I asked you to dinner. You fixed your own day and your own hour. We waited for hours. You never put in an appearance, and sent no apology whatever.

"Why bless my soul!" answered the Irish dramatist, "ye don't say so! But I've such a memory! A thousand pardons! a thousand pardons! Come now, my friend, when do you dine at home again?"

"Wendesday, and we shall be delighted to see you."

"At what hour?"

"Six o'clock."

"Six o'clock—done! I'll be with ye, my boy. God bless you!"

The gentleman walked off and Sheridan Knowles joined his friend. Says Sheridan Knowles to his friend, a minute afterwards, "I'd give ye a thousand pounds, me boy, if ye'd tell me who that man is?"

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN, Or Pure Liquor of Juniper Berries.

This favorite brand of Pure London Cordial Gin, has stood the test of time, imitation, piracy, high tariffs and unfair competition, and still enjoys a constantly increasing sale; showing that true merit does not always go unappreciated.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is offered to the public as a perfectly reliable specific in all cases of DISEASED BLADDER and KIDNEYS. It acts directly on these organs, with a directness and speediness which render it invaluable to persons suffering from GRAVEL, DIABETES, INFLAMED BLADDER, scanty and highly colored urine, and in all cases where, from whatever cause, a healthful diuretic is required.

Ladies subject to painful menstruation, can by the use of Cordial Gin a few days previous to, and during illness, obtain great relief. In such instances it should be taken with sugar and warm water.

As a tonic and beverage this Gin is unequaled, as it possesses none of the headache properties to be found in those poisons, now so frequently sold under the names of Gin, Brandy, Whiskey, &c.

Motley is expected to be at his post on June 1

Beverly Johnson will make a tour of Europe before coming home.

Treasury statement: Coin, 88 millions; coin certificates, 19 millions; currency, 8 millions.

A dispatch to the Tribune says: Senator Ross beat Grant on the confirmation of a Postmaster for Lawrence, Kansas. Ross appealed to the Senate that a Senator ought to have the appointment of Postmaster for his own town. The Senate, accepting this doctrine, gave Grant's nominee only 8 votes.

Senator Chandler's speech was warlike. He hoped for a peacable settlement on the basis of his resolutions, but if England wished wars let it, he said, be short, sharp and decisive. The 60,000 of Michigan veterans alone would look out for the Canadas. The resolution was referred to the Committee on foreign relations.

The naval apprentice ship Saratoga leaves shortly for a cruise along the Cuban coast.

Among those dismissed from the treasury department is a brother of General Sam Houston. Col Houston had been employed in the department for several years.

All parties here seem agreed that the Mississippi election should not occur until Fall.

The confirmations to-day are those of J. J. Martin, of Alabama, as sixth auditor of the treasury; Louis E. Johnson to be marshal of South Carolina; Jackson to be postmaster at Prince Edward, Va.; J. Holmes Grover of South Carolina, to be consul at Aucona; B. O. Duncan of South Carolina, to be consul at Elsinore; W. D. Richardson to be collector of the third district of North Carolina; Collins to be collector of customs at Brunswick Ga.; Wm. T. Spencer to be collector of customs at St. Mary's, Georgia.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—The Senate adopted a resolution directing the Secretary of War to examine the mouth of the Mississippi and report what is necessary to benefit commerce.

The question of adjournment is now up. Indications that the Senate will adjourn on Thursday.

READ WHAT THE

HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITIES

SAY OF THE

BROOKLYN LIFE!

"A Company that makes such endorsements on its policies gives the strongest pledge that it will fulfil its trust faithfully, and keep its reserves sufficient."—HON. ELIZUR WRIGHT.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has placed itself in the vanguard of insurance reform, and is the first Company that has done full and complete justice to the insured."—INSURANCE TIMES, Jan. 1869.

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, ALONE OF ALL OTHER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES, GUARANTEES A DEFINITE SURRENDER-VALUE IN CASH, AND EVERY POLICY ISSUED BY THAT COMPANY, BEARS A CERTIFICATE STATING WHAT THIS EXACT WORTH WILL BE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS, AT ANY TIME, AFTER THE PAYMENT OF TWO OR MORE PREMIUMS.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has made no half-way work of the adoption of this inestimable feature. It is noteworthy, in this connection, as a merited tribute to the excellent Company (Brooklyn Life,) which has so gallantly raised the standard of reform in Life Insurance, that we find in the whole list of existing Companies, few competitors which deserve so much credit in respect of economy of management, or care, skill and judgment in the selection of risks."—INS. SPEC. Jan. 1869.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

Dividends are paid IN CASH, or applied to the permanent increase of the policy, or left with the Company to accumulate at interest, in either way, at the option of the policy-holder.

LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,

$1,000,000,

PAID IN FULL.

It is no longer a question with any man, who tenderly loves his wife and children, who considers how helpless would be their condition in case of his death, as to the duty of taking out a LIFE POLICY, but as to which Company he shall pay his money.

If he reflects a moment he will conclude to patronize the Company which shows the greatest degree of vitality, which extends its business over the largest area, which is a Home Company in every locality; which furnishes insurance at the least cost; which issues no policies that are forfeitable should he be unable next year, or any subsequent year to pay his renewal; and which is undoubtedly able to meet ALL ITS PROMISES.

With these feelings and views, he looks over the newspapers and, by the time he gets through reading the advertisements of Mutual or Mixed Companies, he finds his mind so muddled that he is at a loss where to go or what to do. He cannot comprehend one-half that is written, and concludes that none but ACTUARIES, who are familiar with the principles upon which Life Insurance is based can comprehend or explain anything about dividends and his liability for notes given in part payment of premiums. In his dilemma, he took into the plan adopted by the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

U. S. A.,

and finds just what he wants:

An ALL CASH PLAN, reduced to the LOWEST MINIMUM Rate, like any commodity in Market, so much Insurance for so much Money. No notes to give; no interest to pay; no anxiety about Assessments; no apprehension of his Policy being forfeited next year if he does not pay his annual Renewal; and the RATES so much LOWER than other Companies, that he realizes a larger Dividend, IN ADVANCE, than other Companies can pay him in the future.

He finds that, instead of this UNCERTAIN PROMISE, and present high rate, that the presents a certain and definite sum for a much lower rate, and puts up its paid up Capital of

$1,000,000

as a guarantee fund, that its contracts will be fulfilled, and, like thousands of others, cheerfully calls on their Agent to make his application for a Policy. Hence the unprecedented and most wonderful success of the NATIONAL as contrasted with the older and Mutual Companies.

The Company issued its first policy on the 1st of August, 1868, and up to March 1st, 1869, it had issued 3,582 policies.
Amount insured, $10,005,550.00
Total Premiums, 350,117.68

The whole number issued by the Connecticut Mutual in the first year of its existence was 809
By the Mutual Benefit of New Jersey, 693
" New England Mutual, 348
" Phœnix Mutual, 325
" Massachusetts Mutual, 913
" Equitable of New York, 277

The Mutual Life, of New York, in the first year of its existence, only issued 479 policies.
In its 10th year, 1,960 "
And in its 20th year, 2,842 " this latter being 680 less than was issued by the NATIONAL in its first seven months.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

CAUTION! WE desire to warn the dealers in, and consumers of Snuff generally, that since the war, certain Tobacco Manufacturers, being unable to find a market for their stuffs, felt themselves obliged to counterfeit the general appearance of our packages, and imitate our Trade Marks so that a close inspection is necessary to detect the spurious article from the genuine, and others going so far as to assert that "Lorillard's Snuff is no longer made."

In issuing this publication we desire to warn the public against the impositions practiced upon them, as they are the losers thereby. It will be found, upon comparison, that Lorillard's snuff is "far ahead" of all others, being made of the best stock, after an original and secret process known only to ourselves, besides possessing great age, strength and pungency, and is warranted not to contain any dangerous or deleterious substances, which cannot be said of many worthless articles put on sale by others. The best is the cheapest in the end. A circular will always be mailed on application. In ordering please specify if Salt Snuff (High Toast,) or Fresh Snuff (Extra Scotch) is desired.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any stove or Range, in any boiler, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest lace to the coarsest blanket. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly dissolving and eradicating the dirt WITHOUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany it by its indorsement with numerous letters or approvals, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the state.
